Ready to benefit from an alternative to the "broken" non-profit model

Apollo's Troupe, LLC seeks a fundraiser to support the performance of the play The Parliament of Poets in San Francisco as near as possible to Union Square, and beyond. As is well known, theatre has three methods of fundraising: investment, the non-profit "broken" model, and donations and gifts. The first two result in a board of directors and the diminishment of creative independence and control for the artist. Apollo's Troupe, LLC seeks to revive the old model of Patronage, direct donations and gifts, preserving the integrity of the art. (See Letter and GPT4 link below for the tax distinction between donations and gifts)

Find potential supporters to Ask for a Patron Donation or Gift (not tax deductible). Help Bring the Message of Peace and Global Community to Humanity and to San Francisco for a second time near Union Square, for 8 to 12 weeks.

The Fundraiser will be paid a 6% commission on funds raised, as an independent contractor, which will maximize what one can earn. Versus fixed hours and wages, one would earn based on performance and production, independently determining one's own hours and approach and procedures to achieve the financial goals as outlined. How good are your existing fundraising connections? How much do you want to earn? How fast? Scale with Apollo's Troupe, LLC. Once Patron funds are deposited in Apollo's Troupe, LLC bank account, via one of the three methods outlined and the bank confirms they've cleared, the fundraiser will receive an accumulated deposit into their bank account by the end of that month.

Interested in talking more? Discuss the contract? Respond here on LinkedIn and then let's connect on Zoom, rather than phone or email. Be sure to read Apollo's Troupe webpage, Patronage Supports the Arts, the Theatre Bay Area profile, and the Industry Marketplace, Touring for a broad understanding of Apollo's Troupe, LLC, which will continue to tour beyond San Francisco. A continuing fundraising position is a possibility, though a commitment at that level is not initially required.

Goal: $100,000+ (not tax deductible) EIN: 83-3830889

The expenses involved in renting a 200 to 400+ seat theatre for 8 to 12 weeks are huge, and $100,000 might not be enough, which is an estimate based on performing for three weeks Off-Broadway last year in NYC.
