

For a Landmark San Francisco Performance
A Call to San Francisco's Cultural Visionaries
Help Bring The Parliament of Poets to Union Square

Dear Friend of the Arts,

San Francisco has always been a sanctuary for creativity, spirit, and transformation. From the Beats of North Beach to the stages of the Theatre District and murals of the Mission, this city has long recognized the arts not as luxury—but as necessity. Today, I invite you to take part in a cultural moment worthy of that legacy.

The Parliament of Poets, a visionary solo performance by Frederick Glaysher of Apollo's Troupe, is a poetic and spiritual journey across the Earth and through the ages. Inspired by the epic tradition, the production gathers the poets, prophets, and sages of East and West—Dante, Rumi, Tolstoy, Black Elk, Tagore, Borges, and others—summoned by the god Apollo to convene on the Moon. Their purpose: to reflect on the meaning of modern life and the unity of humankind.

This 100-minute performance, enriched with musical interludes and cosmic visual projections, explores the wisdom of the world's great spiritual and philosophical traditions—Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism, Taoism, Indigenous teachings—and celebrates the universal truths that bind us together.

Apollo's Troupe is now seeking founding Patrons and donors to help present The Parliament of Poets in a venue as close as possible to Union Square, San Francisco's historic center and symbolic crossroads of culture, peace, and community. To perform this production in Union Square, near the United Nations Plaza, is to honor the spirit of gathering—of San Francisco, and of the world—coming together in moments of reflection, beauty, and harmony.
